

Present Perfect Form Gap Fill

We form the present perfect by using the auxiliary verb before the past participle of the main verb.

Use the substitution table to help you complete the sentences using the present perfect tense.

Subject	Auxiliary Verb	Main Verb (Past Participle)
I	have	lived chewed listened stopped chosen	eaten been gone won lost
You
We
They
She	has
He
It

1. It _____ been very sunny today.
2. "Oh, no! The dog _____ chewed the curtains!"
3. They _____ eaten all of the biscuits!
4. He _____ won the egg and spoon race.
5. Tegan _____ lived in London for six years.
6. "_____ everyone chosen something for show and tell?" asked the teacher.
7. Mo _____ gone to the shop to buy some milk.
8. We _____ stopped to look at the beautiful flowers.
9. She _____ lost her jumper.
10. We _____ listened to music on the radio.