

Year 6 Spelling Patterns and Rules

In the Year 6, pupils are assessed on their spelling ability in a Key Stage Two test (SATs).

Below is a table of spelling rules that are taught during their time at primary school and revisited in Year 6. Year 6 children are expected to know these rules and be able to use them consistently in their writing, as well as be able to spell all the spellings on the Year 5 and Year 6 National Curriculum Word Lists.

Word Type	Rule	Examples
Plurals More than one of something.	Just add –s to the root (usually when it ends in a consonant or –e)	attempts, carriages, castles, creatures, engines, foundations, hedges, materials, pieces, selects, stripes, structures, visitors, articles, remains,
	When a word ends in –y, change y to i, then add -es	bodies, cities, families
	Some plurals change the word completely, or don't change at all...	people, feet, teeth, sheep
	Other plural rules: • If a word ends in –ch, –sh, –x or –s you need to add –es to the end • Some words ending in –f have the f changed to v then add –es, but some just add –s. • If a word ends in –o it might just get an s added (e.g we all said our halos), whilst polishing our halos) or it might have to have an –es (cave systems can contain one grotto, or many grottoes). Usually, it's an –s for a vowel+o at the end of the word, and –es for a consonant+o	watch -> watches thief -> thieves roof -> roofs ; hoof -> hooves video -> videos ; radio -> radios potato -> potatoes ; tomatoes
Verb endings Present/future tense	Add –ing for present/future tense	according, building, climbing, extinguishing, fighting, gleaming, interesting, sprawling, spreading, vanishing, during
Verb endings Present/future tense	drop final -e before adding -ing	challenging, escaping, exciting, including, moving, raising, wrestling, amazing,

Adverbs -ly words to add detail to verbs	4. Where a terminal -e is not influencing another vowel, remove it before adding -ly	gently

Word Type	Rule	Examples
-ie- or -ei- words Note: This is a tricky one, since the most common words using the pattern frequently don't follow the rule... friend being the most obvious.	i before e except after c? Kind of... It's actually, When the sound is /ee/, put i before e, unless it follows a c. For all other sounds, use -Ei- ... unless you know that it's wrong.	believe, pierce <- both are /ee/ sounds
Words that use -c- to make an /s/ sound	These are one of those odd word groups that you just have to 'know'.	audience, centre, century, excellent, exciting, necessary, notice, silence, participate, precious, currency
Prefixes Prefixes alter the meaning of the word.	Need to know all key prefixes. Ad – Al – Des – Dis – En – Ex – In – Im – Pre – Pro – Re – Trans – Un –	advertise, almost, destructive, disappeared, disturbed, encounter, encourage, ensure, important, injured, inspecting, invention, involved, preserve, prevent, produce, together, transformed, transported, uncoiled, unusual, discovered, exclusive, unusual, despite, responsible
Various Suffixes Suffixes alter the meaning of the word, usually in co-operation with a prefix, and often with regard to action or strength of meaning.	Need to know all key suffixes + rules to add them, based on final letter of root words (these are largely the same as the ones for adding -ly.) Most important rule is that if a root word ends in a vowel, and the suffix starts with one – something will have to change!	beautiful, carefully, colourful, effortless, hopeful, regardless, successful, wonderful, responsible
Superlatives A specific suffix	Add –est to denote the 'best' of a group of objects	biggest, largest, nastiest, tallest, widest
Comparatives A specific suffix	Add –er to make direct comparisons	taller, larger, bigger, nastier, wider
