

A Review of George's Marvellous Medicine by Roald Dahl

Comprehension

"George's Marvellous Medicine"

A Magical and Mischievous Adventure!

Rating: ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

"George's Marvellous Medicine" is a super-duper awesome book written by Roald Dahl, and it's like a potion of laughter and adventure! If you're in Grade 4, you're in for a wild ride with George, the cleverest and most mischievous little boy ever.

The story is about George, who decides to make a special medicine for his grumpy grandma. But hold on to your hats because this medicine is no ordinary one! George uses all sorts of crazy things from the kitchen and mixes them up. What happens next is a gigantic, uproarious, and hilarious adventure.

You'll laugh out loud when you read about the crazy things George adds to his medicine – like shaving cream, shampoo, and even a bit of his mom's perfume! But what's really funny is what happens to Grandma after she takes the medicine.

This book is like a rollercoaster of funny and silly moments. You'll be amazed at George's cleverness and bravery. You might even want to make your marvellous medicine (but only if you ask your parents first!).

George's Marvellous Medicine is a book that will make you giggle, gasp, and cheer for George. So grab a copy, get comfy, and join George on this hilarious adventure – you won't want to put it down!

A Review of George's Marvellous Medicine by Roald Dahl - Comprehension Questions

1. Who wrote George's Marvellous Medicine?

2. What is the book about?

3. Why does George make a special medicine?

4. Can you name one funny thing George adds to the medicine?

5. What are some of the crazy things George adds to his medicine?

6. How does George feel about his grandma at the story's beginning?

7. What kind of adventure does George go on after giving his grandma the medicine?

8. What do you think "mischievous" means in the review?

9. Why do you think the review says the book is like a "rollercoaster"?

10. Why does George decide to make the special medicine for his grandma?

11. How would you describe George's character based on what you know from the review?

12. Can you think of a time when you felt mischievous like George in the story?

13. Why do you think the review suggests asking parents before making your marvellous medicine?

A Review of George's Marvellous Medicine by Roald Dahl - Comprehension Answers

1. Who wrote George's Marvellous Medicine?
Roald Dahl wrote George's Marvellous Medicine.
2. What is the book about?
The book is about a boy named George who makes a special medicine for his grandma.
3. Why does George make a special medicine?
George makes the medicine to help his grumpy grandma.
4. Can you name one funny thing George adds to the medicine?
George adds things like shaving cream, shampoo, and perfume to the medicine.
5. What are some of the crazy things George adds to his medicine?
George adds things like shaving cream, shampoo, and perfume to his medicine.
6. How does George feel about his grandma at the story's beginning?
At the story's beginning, George is frustrated with his grumpy grandma.
7. What kind of adventure does George go on after giving his grandma the medicine?
After giving his grandma the medicine, George goes on a gigantic, uproarious, and hilarious adventure.
8. What do you think "mischievous" means in the review?
"Mischievous" means doing things that are a little bit naughty or playful.
9. Why do you think the review says the book is like a "rollercoaster"?
The review says the book is like a "rollercoaster" because it has exciting and funny ups and downs, just like a rollercoaster ride.
10. Why does George decide to make the special medicine for his grandma?
George makes the special medicine to help his grumpy grandma feel better.

11. How would you describe George's character based on what you know from the review?

Based on the review, George seems clever and brave because he makes a special medicine and goes on a wild adventure.

12. Can you think of a time when you felt mischievous like George in the story?

Answers may vary, but students can share their own mischievous or playful experiences.

13. Why do you think the review suggests asking parents before making your marvellous medicine?

The review suggests asking parents before making your marvellous medicine to make sure it's safe and okay.

